Find out more at the MSC Foundation Centre on Deck 5 or mscfoundation.org.

CUSTOMS AND AGRICULTURE REGULATIONS

Due to Agriculture regulations and strict requirements of the local Authorities, it is prohibited to take ashore any kind of food, plants, seeds or shells and commercial merchandise: heavy penalties will apply to guests found with these items.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Bahamas can experience periods of increased reported crime, particularly in Nassau, so it is important to exercise extra vigilance while onshore. Whenever possible avoid going ashore alone, particularly after sunset. Avoid displaying items of value or carrying large amounts of cash. MSC Cruises' shore excursions offer a way to explore the different destinations along our itinerary comfortably in groups. For updated information on the countries on our itinerary, please visit your respective government websites.
